3rd /4th /5th /6th Day : Salkantay Trek : Salkantay Trek is one of the many treks that you can find in the Cusco Region of Peru. With roughly 75 km / 46 miles of distance and about 3000m / 10.000 ft of elevation, this trek is considered a tough one, when compared to the other trekking options in the area. A typical Salkantay Trek will start in Cusco, where you get fetched from your hotel and from where you will be taken to either Mollepata or Soraypampa. A great drawcard for the Salkantay Trek is that you don't only get to see Machu Picchu, but that you also get to see Llaqtapata. Pronounced as "Yakhta-Pata", Llaqtapata is an archeological site about 5 kilometers away from Machu Picchu. It is believed that during Inca times Llaqtapata was a resting
